Take A Walk Down Memory Lane With Us!

HISTORY

These are some images from the town that we live in, where memories are made and dreams come to life. Even though it may seem small, this is where we began and belong.

1. A former RCHS student rides through downtown Rensselaer on a four wheeler.
2. The new Busy Bee in 2003.
3. The old Busy Bee as it used to look.
4. The public library, where you get books and work on projects.
5. A past homecoming parade marches right through downtown Rensselaer.
6. The fountain at Saint Joseph's College is a Rensselaer trademark.
7. Watch out for the fire, a bonfire, after a homecoming parade.

HISTORY

This is Rensselaer, our small-town community. We value having a safe place to dwell. We are lucky to have each other and a strong community support network. As we grow, we learn to deal with what we have and what gets thrown our way.

1. Many RCHS students grew up hanging out at Booksie Park's pool.
2. Students are attending a car wash at Jordan's parking lot for a school benefit.
3. The railroad tracks symbolize all of the students and people in Rensselaer; we just keep going and going.
4. The car push used to be a highlight at the traditional Fun Fest.

CLASS OF 2000

Four years at Rensselaer Central High School seems like a long time. Four years of Mass Communications and yearbook after yearbook: it's all at the end now. I wish, now that I look back, that some things had been done differently. I wish that some things wouldn't have happened. In the long run, I look back and realize that it all happened for a reason. As much as we all want to deny it, each of us made an impact on each other's lives. We all served as a crying shoulder for each other at one point; we all walked together when times seemed hard. Life goes on. This yearbook will always serve as a way to look back at a life in the past. We all want to grow up and live life, but what we don't realize is that often later in life we wish we could go back in the past when we were young. Childhood is supposed to be the time of your life, and with my childhood ending I can see where that old saying came from. It really hits you when you are five weeks from graduation. Those people that you saw everyday will no longer be there... The people you seemed to know most everything about will no longer be just down the street, but a phone call or a letter away. Ten years from now I am sure I will look back at this yearbook and remember something about everyone in some way. I am just glad that I had a supportive co-editor who was willing to bend from the traditional way to make this yearbook truly unique and one-of-a-kind. We did it, Mandi!

Lori Walter

*Editors' Note
Lori Walter
&
Mandi Bridges*

Together we would like to thank Mr. Wes Terrell, Mr. Bill Oates, Mr. Phil Page, the '02-'03 yearbook staff, Chaos members, and all RCHS faculty members for their cooperation.

Hey, I am Mandi B, and I have little to say about this yearbook and about my past experiences in the yearbook classes. During my first experience with yearbook, my sister was the editor, and I respect her in a lot of ways for helping me get to where I am today. Also, Mr. Oates motivated me to consider becoming an editor with Lori Walter. Mr. Oates always gave us that little push that we needed in order to strive harder and to be the top two of the class. It was not always an easy task; we had to take on a lot of responsibilities. The past two years were different; I had a lot of responsibilities and sometimes it seemed as if I had too much to deal with, but it was all for the preparation of my senior year here at RCHS. This year has been a year full of surprises around every corner. Who is ready for the real world? Not me. I am sure that a lot of us aren't. This is the time that we all have to sit back and reflect on the past years and fun times here at RCHS, because it has all come to an end in the blink of an eye. So this is going to have to be my end. My last words to everyone are to strive for all that you can and reach for the stars, because if you want it bad enough, you will get it. No matter how long it takes, you will eventually achieve it.

Mandi Bridges

It was another tremendous season for our boys in black. Lead by 17 seniors, the Bombers captured their second straight Hoosier Conference Championship. After an emotional loss to end the season, the 17 seniors took off the Bomber red and black for the last time. With a strong underclass, though, the Bombers will be a championship caliber team for years to come.

"Cross Country is a gutsy sport. After a long time off, I had to start all over again. Since I had to start basically from scratch, I was quite slow. Coach Dobson had some really hard practices, most of the time. I guess they paid off. Each meet my times dropped and I became faster and better. If you ask other runners on the team, they would all say the same thing. "Everyone starts off slow and gets better."

GIRL'S CROSS COUNTRY

Look, it's a bird, it's a plane. No, it's Janelle Nagel speeding past the other runners to cross the finish line. Janelle Nagel has been a dedicated member of our Crosscountry team for four years. Moving on as a senior, Janell will be missed by many. The girls had a great season. Through their hard work and dedication, they managed to bring themselves to regionals. On sixteen different occasions our runners improved their times and set new personal records. Next year, their team will be improved because they will have a strong core of runners returning. Good luck, ladies.

As a first year coach, Sid Dobson ended this year's cross country season on a good note. Despite the obstacles of injuries and too few runners to compete for a score, coach Dobson led the Bombers to their personal bests. Throughout the season, Bomber runners bettered their times and set new personal goals on 16 different occasions. This shows high potential for next season.

Losing only one senior, Adam Zimmer, many runners will return and even more will be added to the team with next year's freshmen coming. Adam has run cross country all four years of his high school career, and this year he had one of the fastest times. He was an awesome teammate and friend.

1. The race starts off with a bang as the runners head toward the finish line.
2. Senior Adam Zimmer runs with triumph to complete the course.
3. Derek Sizemore takes the lead and leaves the others behind.
4. Andrew Schenk makes his way around the trees.
5. Scott Kerlin and Adam Zimmer run with each other to pace themselves.

GIRLS SOCCER

The 2002 soccer team faced a new challenge. Along with new coaches, the Rensselaire JV soccer team advanced to Varsity, which was decided at the end of last season. Although this season was challenging, the players knew from the beginning that it would be difficult.

This year's team had many new and inexperienced players, as well as a handful of players from last season. They worked and played together, and as a whole they learned a lot. They faced varsity teams with much experience, but through those challenges they developed this season as a learning block to better next year's game.

With incoming freshmen and a new varsity team, many returning players from last year's season were skeptical about how this season would turn out. Many thought that there would be too many players and that nobody would ever get to play. But to their amazement, the extra substitutes came in handy. Not only were the subs helpful, but this year's coaches also made an impact on the improvement of the program. The coaches demanded a high level of skill, which the players practiced and improved upon. The coaches also set high expectations for how the bombers played.

1. The starting players for the team line up before the beginning of the game

2. Matt Ellis hustles after the ball with determination.

3. Chris Gutwein, Adam Benner, Matt Smith and Darin Owens get together for a snap shot at the end of the game.

4. Managers Ashley Sizemore, Dayna Barrett, and Sarah Schantz smile for a group picture while the boys play a tough game.

5. Brett Sanders practices his corner kick before the game.

6. Chad Hagel looks for a teammate to pass the ball to.

7. Josh Davis steadily takes the ball up the field with a teammate by his side just in case he runs into trouble.

8. Andy Lanoue takes a penalty kick for the team.

9. Darin Owens throws the ball back into play with all of his strength.

BOYS SOCCER

"The quicker we advanced to a Varsity team the better it would be. It was a step that eventually had to happen, so what better time than now to do it. It was a good step in the program, although it made this season a bit harder. But even then, advancing now will be more beneficial to future teams and it will only make the program stronger."

GIRLS SWIMMING

This season the girls swim team consisted of 7 Sophomores and 3 Juniors with no Seniors or Freshmen.

The shortage of swimmers only effected their performance when it came to competing in the relays. Sometimes there weren't enough swimmers to fill a relay team.

The advantages of a small team helped them to become closer, and they learned to help each other out.

Overall the season turned out well. Individuals improved their times and set some new records.

"The funniest thing that happened this season was during the Twin Lakes meet. Eydie kept false starting and she was wondering why they had to start the race over again because she didn't know she was the one starting early."

EXTINGUISHING

HOT IN HERE

What was the highlight of this year's swimming season for you?

Before sectionals Ms. Henady made us her humongous cinnamon rolls after a hard morning practice.

-Josh Davis

I enjoyed the season very much. I liked improving my times the most.

-Kevin Allegrini

My favorite parts of the season were winning the Rensselaer Relays and the victory over Merrillville.

-Matt Gillespie

1. Kevin Smith races through the water to win a close race in the 100 butterfly.
2. Dan Mathew comes up for air before beating his opponent to the finish.
3. In the diving well, Phillip Henady practices the breaststroke to get it perfect for his next race.
4. The boys take a break from swimming hard to relax and prepare for their upcoming events.
5. Adam Wollenberg gasps for air as he does the breaststroke in the 200 I.M.
6. Steve Wilcox prepares to dive in, as teammate Matt Gillespie waits for his turn in the relay.
7. Adam Zimmer leads the RCHS swimmers to stand and join in the singing of the National Anthem.
8. Justin Demoss, the sole diver of the team, prepares for his dive.
9. Joshua Hedden sprints to complete the first portion of the 200 I.M.

BOYS SWIMMING

Another great season of swimming ended with three seniors who led the 2003 team to 17 victories. The boys worked hard throughout the year along with having fun during practices and meets with Coach Kellow. Seniors Adam Zimmer, Steve Wilcox and Phil Henady helped to prepare the upcoming seniors and underclassman for next year. The boys ended an awesome year coming in fifth at sectionals and giving next year's team a higher goal to work toward.

CHEERLEADING

How was this season different from seasons in the past?

"This year has been a complete frenzy. Everything is new. We have had our downfalls, but we're a close squad and we came together."

-Heather Curles

"We've seen some great people go, but we've stuck together and found fun in all the obstacles. I couldn't have asked for a greater squad to work and grow with."

-Katie Hannon

"This year has been really hard. Yet, in the end, we will still have each other."

-Natalie Gantt

This cheerleading season has differed from seasons in the past in many ways. For example, this year the Varsity squad is missing seniors. Yet, instead of looking at this as a bad thing, the cheerleaders have taken it in stride. The juniors have stepped up and taken responsibility. They can look forward to a great season next year because they won't be losing anyone at graduation. It looks like RCHS can look forward to a very strong squad next year.

GIRLS TRACK

The girls' track team had a very successful season. Many runners returned from last year and several new Freshmen were added to their team. Each member contributed to their strong season. At many meets, the girls placed first and second.

The 4x4 team of Reagan Kanne, Jessica Lusse, Amy Streitmatter, and Breanne Braasch broke numerous school records throughout the season, as well as a conference record. The 4x4 team advanced on to regionals. Such success brings high hopes for next year's team.

This year's Varsity softball team improved their run record by one run. It may not look like a lot, but the girls are pleased. Game-wise, Coach Adkins said that the team has improved. According to Coach Adkins, "There was a lot of great leadership this year by the five Seniors, and the girls' effort has improved."

The JV team had a good season as well. Their record was 4-8. The girls accumulated 84 runs throughout the season, and they gave up 89 runs. Good job, ladies.

This year's Homecoming was very exciting! There were five candidates running for Homecoming Queen and they all were very busy during the week. The candidates were Heather Brantner, Toni Parker, Janell Nagel, Stephanie Goodman, and Natalie Ames. Heather Brantner won the crown, but all the girls had a great time.

The night of the game we played the West Lafayette Red Devils. The Bombers won 41-3. The game was very cold. During the game everyone stayed warm cheering, and then afterwards stayed warm dancing.

Before the game Mr. Hainje was given the Grand Marshall Award for all his achievements and his dedication throughout the years at RCHS.

"It was great! This was my first "U.S. Homecoming" and I had lots of Fun! It was really nice to be here at that time."

-CeCi Quintanilla

"This was my last Homecoming and having the Seniors win the float contest and then top it off by beating the Red Devils in the game, made this year the best one yet"

-Kathy Brandenburg

"I had a really fun time. I thought the game and the dance were very exciting. The game kept you on your feet and the dance was loud and a lot of fun."

-Tony Floyd

HOMECOMING

4. Erica Peck and Danielle Abbott take time to pose for the camera during the events of Homecoming.
5. The Sophomores are getting ready for their skit.
6. This is a warning sign to the Red Devils.
7. Andy Lanoue and Janell Nagel dance to a slow song.
8. Abby Miller and Kathy Brandenburg are making some moves on the dance floor.

How was your Sunshine experience this year?

"This year's Sunshine Dance was by far the best Sunshine Dance I have ever attended! My group had the coolest dates and they made it totally worthwhile. I will always remember Sunshine and nothing will ever compare to it."

-Jenny Tanis-

"Vickie and I had a great time. Everyone looked really nice and I really liked the break-dancing. The people who did the decorations in the gym did a really good job as well."

-Derick Marshall-

"I had a great time and enjoyed seeing everyone all jazzed up. It would have been better if I hadn't been stood up by my date."

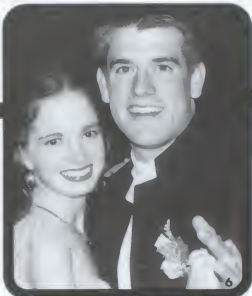

-Mandi Bridges-

SUNSHINE DANCE

The Sunshine Society pulled off yet another amazing dance for the RCHS Sunshine members and their dates. The dance was held on November 2. With Moonlight and Roses as the theme, the decorations committee had their work cut out for them. Many members filed down to the gym during their study halls to add their contributions. While a few girls put their hot air to use with the balloons, others helped cut streamers and add finishing touches to the props. All the while, Mrs. Waling and Mrs. Swartzell were busy making sure glitter wasn't on the floor and keeping order through all the chaos. All the hard work paid off and the dance was a hit. The Sunshine society paid their thanks to their sponsors, Mrs. Waling and Mrs. Hancock, by making them honorary queens. Also, Mrs. Swartzell was thanked for her help with an arrangement of flowers and given the title of honorary princess.

1) The Sunshine sponsors pose with the Queen and her Princesses.

2) Kevin Earnest helps with the decorating.

3) Natalie Gant takes a risk as she climbs on the ladder to help with decorations.

4) Sara Egan displays her artistic ability with the decorations.

5) Sara Hardwood and Rachel Acunius are excited to get in the dance.

6) Amy Kenning and former graduate Eric Midstrom take a break from dancing the night away to flash those pearly whites.

7) Michael Vaughn dreams of being queen.

8) The Parker twins pull a double-shot for the camera.

9) Sponsor Mrs. Waling proudly crowns this year's 2002 Sunshine queen, Brandi Holt.

10) Juniors Amber Justice, Molly Lyons, and Brandi Roberts take a break from blowing up tons of balloons to flash a quick smile.

MR. BOMBER

EXPLODING

HOT IN HERE

Mr. Bomber night is an occasion that many look forward to. Not only is it a night to get dressed up and parade around the gym floor. It is also a very special night for that one lucky guy who will go home as "Mr. Bomber". With candidates Tommy Allegrini, Joe DelPrincipe, Winston Lynch, Andy McKim, and Brett Sanders, it was sure to be an interesting night. Many students attend the game just to see who will be named Mr. Bomber. When all the votes were tallied, Andy McKim was named Mr. Bomber. Congratulations Andy, you deserve it.

1. Candidate Winston Lynch stands with escort Beth McElroy.
2. Candidate Andy McKim stands with escort Mandi Bridges.
3. Candidate Brett Sanders stands with escort Caylyn Kraud.
4. Candidate Tommy Allegrini stands with escort Sarah DeWees.
5. Candidate Joe DelPrincipe stands with escort Natalie Ames.
6. Andy McKim walks on the floor with no idea he will walk off as Mr. Bomber.
7. Brett Sanders whispers to his escort. Does he know who won?
8. As Andy McKim accepts the well-deserved title of Mr. Bomber, he also accepts the applause and hugs from his supporters.

MORP

1. RCHS really knows how to have a little fun.

2. Casey Rabbitt is ready to start her fun-filled evening.

3. Nathan Amsler takes a break from all of the dancing to smile at the camera.

4. JD Feaster, Ron Kasparian, and Jacob Rowland pose for a group picture.

5. Robbie Butler and his date Veronica Foster enjoy a slow dance.

6. Nicole Tow and her date Chris Thilges give a smile for the camera.

It seems as though RCHS has pulled off yet another successful MORP. On March 15 2003, students took advantage of the opportunity to dress up and have some fun. Themes for the dance were encouraged. Students showed up in costumes varying from Joe Dirt replicas to a group full of gangsters. It was a night of fun for everyone.

How was your 2003 prom experience?

"Prom was a great experience for my last high school dance. The pizza was good, the music was great, and I had a blast dancing the night away with my friends."

-Ariel Hartwell-

"After all the hard work and big plans, and in spite of the confusion, Prom was still enjoyed by all and was an Evening of Elegance."

-Mrs. Meta Waling-

"This year's prom was so great. I had a lot of fun. I got to spend the last dance of my high school career with all of my friends. It was the best! I will remember it for the rest of my life."

-Ashley Schultz-

PROM

The RCHS Junior/Senior Prom was held on May 17, 2003. The theme was "A Night of Elegance," which proved wonderfully describe the fun-filled night. While it was a lovely evening, it differed from years in the past. This year, instead of holding Prom at the usual St. Joseph's College, the Juniors decided to hold Prom at the Brandywine Resort in Monticello, Indiana. This year, students were spared from the decisions of where they would go to eat because dinner was served at Prom. An array of dinner items were served to the tables so that students could relax and enjoy an elegant meal with their classmates. While it was a change from what RCHS students were used to, it was a fantastic night for all.

ELECTRIFYING

HOT IN HERE

1. Michael Vaughn and other cast members prepare for their dress rehearsal performance.

2. The role of Oliver is played by Karyn Taylor.

3. Josh Timberlake storms the stage as the cruel orphanage manager.

4. Kaila Snyder enjoys some Chinese food backstage.

5. Kevin Earnest and Jennifer Fellmy use the backdrop to act out a scene in the play.

6. Nick Earnest takes the spotlight.

It took a lot of work to prepare Oliver in time for opening night. The actors had to memorize their lines, conquer their fears, and put emotion into their parts.

The actors, though, aren't the only people who put hours of work into this production. Many people spent hours creating the sets for the play. These people include Mr. Orchard, Alan Hughes, refugees from study hall, artists, Building and Trades club members, custodial staff, and the auto class. The hardest part of set construction was probably the bridge, but it held strong throughout the entire play. All of the hard work was appreciated. Thanks to everyone!

PLAYS AND MUSICALS

1. Vanessa Lowry and Jodi Siebring are cast as two sisters: they argue like the real thing!

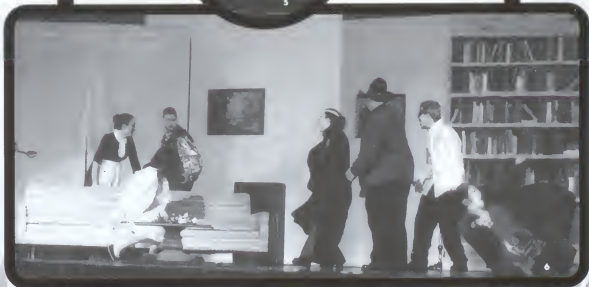

2. Steve Meyers spends some last minute practice time with his lines.

RETIREMENT

Since Mr. Brandenburg has been at Rensselaer Central High School, he has taught General Biology, Academic Biology, Advanced Placement Biology, and Driver's Education.

He has been a freshman boys' basketball coach, J.V. boys' and girls' basketball coach, and head girls' basketball coach. Mr. Brandenburg also served as the freshman J.V. football coach and the varsity football assistant coach. Finally, Mr. Brandenburg was the intermural director at RCHS. Thanks for all of your sacrifice and dedication, Mr. Brandenburg.

"I will remember the colleagues and students I have known over the past forty years."

-Mr. Stephen Brandenburg-

Over the Course of his career, Mr. Hainje has taught Civics, World History, Careers and Workplace Readiness, Economics and Government. He coached J.V. basketball for six years. Mr. Hainje also coached freshman football for three years and was the head football coach for thirteen years.

His football records include the first RCHS football team to compete in a football tourney in 1983, the first RCHS football team to win Sectionals in 1986, and finally, the first team to compete in Regionals in 1986. Mr. Hainje also led his team to the outstanding record for beating Kankakee Valley six years in a row for the Cracker Barrel.

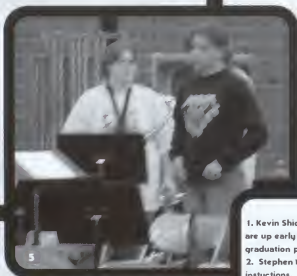

"Thanks to all the Faculty members and students who helped make my years at RCHS very enjoyable."

3. Mat Muhn signs his name into the National Honor Society book.

4. Kara Mulvihill tries to remember all of the activities she is involved in while filling out her application.

5. Natalie Goodman, Kate Greene, and Katie Hannon recite the Pledge of the National Honor Society after being inducted.

The National Honor Society is a group of students who excel academically. These students are also involved with school-related activities such as sports and clubs. They volunteer throughout the community to aid in community service. Students who are chosen are inducted at the end of the year and take on the role of inducting new members the following year.

1. The student body listens carefully at the convocation.
2. The accident scene demonstration was sponsored by members of B.A.D.D.
3. Sarah DeWees is taken away in the ambulance.
4. Tom Allegrini was one of the students who died in the Every 15 Minute program.
5. Janell Nagel is carried off on a stretcher.

B.A.D.D. stands for Bombers Against Destructive Decisions. This club is against teenagers making negative decisions involving drugs and alcohol. Students in the club help with Red Ribbon Week, and also try to tell their peers of the dangers of drinking and driving, especially after events such as the Prom. They demonstrate such dangers with the Every 15 Minutes program.
